

YOUNG CHERRY FESTIVAL.

FANTASTIC WEEKEND.

2nd - 4th December 2017

Welcome, won't you join us for the Cherry Festival?

A fun time we always have at Young, so we are going to do it again. Young comes alive in late November to early December each year when the cornucopia of the district's stone fruit first comes into harvest. Well known for it's abundance of cherries, Young celebrates with the annual Cherry Festival, a traditional country event of great merriment and cheer, which is the highlight of the stone fruit season.

Saturday 2nd December. Depart depot 6.30am bound for Young, having morning tea and lunch en route at Cootamundra RSL Clubs. Arrive into Young in the afternoon with some time to take in the markets before the Street Parade commences. You may wish to walk up to the park this evening to watch the bands etc.

Our accommodation for the next two nights is at the Federation Motor Inn - an outstanding motel, superb large rooms, very well appointed, and only 3 mins from town, with fantastic country hospitality.

Please note—Breakfast & Dinner will be at the RSL, which is across the road from the motel LD.

Sunday 3rd December. After breakfast we head out to explore the Young District. We have some time to take in the local produce markets and main street. Lunch will be at Bluestill Distillery- a lovely shop with local preserves that we can purchase and where they also make their own spirits. Tastings are recommended and the Southern Belle has been a popular choice previously. The afternoon takes us to Iandra Castle - a beautiful castle in the village of Greenethorpe that was built in the early 1900's. Owned by a local family, you will be told about the history of the castle as we walk through. There will be some time this afternoon on our way back into Young to stop off at Poppa Fudge Factory to purchase some last minute treats. BLD

Monday 4th December. It is goodbye to Young, but before we do, lets purchase some cherries! A stop at Allambie Orchard for a tour of the orchard before some morning tea of Cherry Pie. Lunch en route on the way home at Boorowa. Arrive Nowra late in the afternoon. B.
