

HUNTER VALLEY GARDENS CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

23rd and 24th November 2017

There is no better way to get into the Christmas spirit than visiting the Hunter Valley Garden Christmas Light display. It makes you feel like a child again at Christmas time – a fairy land of lights and Christmas characters that everyone knows no matter what your age. Over 1.5 million lights on display and it just gets better each year.

With time to explore some of the Hunter Region along the way; we are treated to the country hospitality of Wollombi Tavern, Monarchs in the Hunter and of course the stunning Hunter Valley Gardens, including some time to wander the Village Shops.

Thursday 23rd November (LD)

Depart depot at 8.00am for a leisurely run with morning tea en route and lunch at Wollombi Tavern – home of the famous Dr Jurd's Jungle Juice. Some free time in Wollombi will allow you to wander this quaint little village before we head to Petersham Champagne House for some tasting of their "Bubbles" before we arrive at our accommodation.

Dinner is provided at Cessnock Supports Club prior to us heading out the Hunter Valley Gardens Christmas Lights display (approx. 7.30pm to 10.00pm).

Best Western Wine Country Motor Inn, Cessnock. Ph: 4993 2999.

Friday 24th November (BL)

Breakfast is provided at the motel before we head off to Monarch's in The Hunter – Australia's largest privately owned collection of British Royal Memorabilia.

Watch TV sitting next to the Queen or have Camilla serve you tea! We have time to head back to the Hunter Valley Garden's and quaint little shopping village before we departure for home. You may enjoy stopping back into the gardens (train ride may be available– ride at own expense) and looking through the village shops – it's up to you. Lunch on our way home will be at Doyalson RSL Club before arriving back into Nowra at about 7.00pm
