The aircraft flying on the evening will not be finalised until closer to the night however over the weekend we are guaranteed to view some very rare aircraft. Nowhere else in the world can we see a flying Lockheed Hudson bomber, CAC Boomerang or Spitfire MKVIII as well as the extraordinarily rare treat of seeing airworthy examples of the Gloster Meteor and English Electric Canberra. There will be plenty of aerial action today and tomorrow. Our seats are in a reserved area, with un-interrupted views, this promises to be a very memorable evening. (Lunch enroute / dinner at own expense at Airshow)

Day 2 (BD): WARBIRDS DOWNUNDER 2018 - Saturday 13 October, 2018

Following breakfast we will be heading back to the Temora Aviation Museum for the Warbirds Downunder air show. It is a public museum displaying military aircraft of historical significance to Australia. The museum has devoted displays to the pilots who have risked their lives flying in defence of Australia. The Museum's aircraft are kept in airworthy condition and flown on a regular basis, making it a memorable aviation museum experience. Our visit today though is a very special one as we will get to see plenty of aerial action when most of the Museum's aircraft collection will be taking to the skies as well as plenty of visiting aircraft. Apart from the flying program there will be other exhibits for us to enjoy. Food vendors are brought in for the day so there will be plenty of lunch options to choose from during our time here. An assortment of classic, vintage and military vehicles will also be on display.
